

Terms & Conditions

All cats MUST be vaccinated prior to entry into the cattery. Fully vaccinated means 2 vaccinations as a kitten one month apart and then yearly for life against Calicivirus, Herpes virus and feline enteritis.

Their annual vaccination MUST be at least 21 days prior to entry into the cattery. If it is due sooner than this please leave it until after their stay as immunity does not end exactly on that date. Send a screenshot if unsure and contact us.

If your cat(s) have been vaccinated with Fellocell they must have had an annual vet check in between their vaccination but yearly is advised for communal cat boarding for their health and that of others.

All cats must be flea treated prior to entry, if it appears your cat has fleas, they will be flea treated at owners' cost, $30 per cat using Advantage or $60 using Bravecto. We will treat your cat as soon as we see evidence of fleas for the welfare of all our guests and you will be informed as soon as practicable. All cats are checked prior to mixing with other guests for fleas. No cat suspected of having fleas will be allowed out of its cubicle until we are certain it does not have fleas. If your cat has shown signs of a reaction to ANY flea treatments you MUST inform us when you drop off your cat(s) or before.

Do not rely on the flea treatment, it is the customers responsibility to check their cat(s) for fleas prior to arriving at the cattery.

We do not accept treatment with Frontline, Broadline or Revolution as these in our view are ineffective in the treatment of fleas.

We recommend, Bravecto, Seresto Flea collars, Nexguard, Advantage and Advocate.

We charge per cat per day regardless of time dropped off or picked up.

The minimum stay is charged at the equivalent of 3 days in whichever area your cat is staying regardless of times.

If you do not require your booking once it is confirmed we must be given at least 48hrs notice of cancellation in order for you to not incur any costs . Less than 48hrs notice will incur the full cost of those confirmed dates.
